

TEST BANK

Done by: Qusai Ibraheem

Reviewed by:

1-Simon found that in making decisions, most people satisfied because they had limited ability to._____

- a. be truthful and honest in situations that deal with other people
- b. think independently
- c. deal with difficult situations
- d. grasp present conditions and anticipate future conditions

answer:D

2-Which of the following tends to impede a person's creativity?

- a. providing time and resources
- b. clearly defined goals
- c. being watched while you work
- d. internal motivation

answer:C

3-A person who satisfices fails to._____

- a. maximize his or her decision
- b. understand his or her position
- c. accept the truth of a situation
- d. make any kind of decision

answer:A

4-Compared to fully rational decision making, what is a major advantage of intuitive decision making?

- a. total reliability
- b. fully quantified
- c. thoroughness
- d. speed

answer:D

5-The three main models that managers use to make decisions are._____

- a. rational, bounded rational, and intuitive
- b. rational, irrational, bounded rational
- c. intuitive, unintuitive, rational
- d. bounded rational, intuitive, systematic

answer:A

6-A client with congestive heart failure is having difficulty breathing. Before leaving the room the nurse ensures the client has an over-bed table to lean on when awake if needed to ease breathing. Which technique did the nurse use to make this decision?

- A) Delegating a task
- B) Priority-setting
- C) Conflict resolution
- D) Critical thinking

answer:D

7-A graduate nurse is planning care for an older client with a wound infection and systemic blood infection. The nurse completes the plan of care and decides to complete which action to enhance the skill of critical thinking?

- A) Discuss the plan with the physician.
- B) Request that the client review the plan.
- C) Request a review of the plan with the nurse's preceptor.
- D) Place the plan on the client's chart.

Answer:C

8-During a health history a client becomes upset because the nurse is asking many questions. What should the nurse respond to the client?

- A) "I use the answers you provide to determine what your current health needs are".
- B) "I am sorry the questions disturb you".
- C) "I will skip the questions that bother you".
- D) "I cannot help you if you do not answer me."

Answer:A

9- The nurse is collecting data about a client's current health status. Which statement would assist in gathering subjective data about the client?

- A) "Your eyelid is red and swollen".
- B) "Your skin appears to be dry and irritated".
- C) "I see that you have bruises on your legs".
- D) "Tell me why you have difficulty sleeping."

Answer:D

10-A client recovering from knee surgery is being prepared to ambulate for the first time. Prior to getting the client up, what should the nurse do?

- A) Ask the client about readiness to walk.
- B) Call for a wheelchair to start the process.
- C) Conduct a breathing assessment.
- D) Evaluate the client's level of pain.

Answer:D