

Psychiatry Exam

B3&B4

1st Student:

- Introduce yourself and ask about abstract
- What do you know about Major depressive episode ? Dx criteria, why to admit?
- Definition of hallucination and types

2nd Student:

- Assess Patient's Speech What do you know about Delirium? How it's Managed ?
Precautions taken in the Patient's Room?
- Define Panic Disorder? Criteria for panic disorder? Management? What if SSRI's didn't work in the first couple of weeks, what do we give the Pt? What are the symptoms of panic attack?

3rd Student:

- difference between delirium and delirium tremens (tremor)
- Briquette's syndrome (somatization of pain)
- conversional disorder (definition and criteria, primary and secondary gains)
- malingering (does it have a primary or secondary gain)
- psychological blindness

4th Student:

- Introduce yourself and ask about pts concentration and attention
- What do you know about Dementia?
- Mania definition and criteria

5th Student:

- What is the criteria for Schizophrenia Dx?
- What are the Positive and negative sx of Schizophrenia
- difference between Delirium and Dementia
- Delirium causes

6th Student:

- Introduce yourself to the Pt and examine his thought
- What is the criteria of Dx for depression

7th Student:

- Introduce yourself and examine pt judgment
- Criteria for Schizophrenia Dx
- Phases of Schizophrenia

8th Student:

- Introduce yourself and examine pts behavior and appearance
- Borderline personality disorder? (definition ,criteria) .
- Schizophrenia definition
- Specific phobia definition and treatment

9th Student:

- Introduce yourself and assess pt concentration and attention
- What do you know about Autism
- Delusional Disorder (definition, criteria)
- Hallucination definition and types

10th Student:

- Difference between substance abuse and dependency
- what is specific phobia
(definition, examples, treatment)

Pulse Question Team
(Saif Al-Ghweery)